The 1st European Students Championship blitz

This regulation developed especially for 1st European Students Championship Blitz by the Chief Referee according point 11 of Regulation of 1st European Students Championship and based on FMJD rules (Annex VI “Rapid and Blitz games”).

1. Time control

The 1st European Students Championship blitz will be played with 5 minutes per player for each game.

2. The draw agreement

When the players do not record the games the 40 moves rule is not valid. The players may agree upon a draw only if the number of men for each player is 10 or less.

3. Rights of the players

Any player wishing to call the referee for assistance has the right to stop the clocks while his complaint is being considered (contrary to Annex III article 4.4).

Any player who wishes to claim a regulatory draw (see Annex I article 6) may do so. The referee will decide if the claim is correct and if so he will end the game.

4. Rights and duties for the referee

If the playing time is expired, the referee will end the game declaring the game lost for the player who exceeded the allotted time.

5. Regulation-draw

During blitz games, unless the game has an obvious continuation, the end game with one king against three or less kings is not played and is called a regulation draw.

6. Time Shortage

In blitz games, any player who has one minute or less left on his clock, in the endgame phase with a maximum of 8 pieces total for white and black, has the right to claim a draw if his position is clearly superior.

7. «Russian» king

King may be made by turning up-side down the piece.
